DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Zumpano (U.S. 6,153,829).

Zumpano discloses an airbag for protecting an occupant, comprising; a bag portion (A, B, C...) to be inflated in front of the occupant, and a pressure sensor (49) mounted on an inner surface of the bag portion for detecting an inner pressure of the bag portion when the airbag is inflated; a harness (50) electrically connected to the pressure sensor (49), said harness being disposed along the inner surface of the bag portion; wherein said harness has a portion extending along a folding line (52, 53) of the airbag for folding the same; wherein the pressure sensor (49) is disposed at a portion of the airbag other than a surface of the airbag contacting the occupant and a vehicle body when the airbag is inflated; and a gas generator (42) attached airbag for inflating the airbag.
